

23 Gauge Phaco-Fragmentations in Vitreoretinal Procedures

Author: Ehab N El Rayes

Advantages:

To show a new 23gauge fragmatome for use during 23gauge vitrectomy, for managing dropped lens.

Methods:

23 g fragmatome was a missing tool in Vitreoretinal procedure. This presentation shows the design of a new 23g fragmatome. The usage and efficacy as well as different indications will be shown during the presentation.

Effectiveness / Safety:

23 g fragmentation is possible with effective fragmentation and fluidics during 23 g surgery.