

New Technique for Acute Central Retinal Vein Occlusion Surgery

Georgiy E. Stolyarenko, MD, PhD (Moscow, Russia)

SYNOPSIS

New surgical technique of indirect massage of central retinal vein thrombus after acute (4 days) occlusion is shown. Two types of massage – hydrodynamic and mechanical are applied. Two symptoms of passable and unpassable vein are revealed.