

Preoperative Bevacizumab in the Management of Diabetic Retinal Detachments

Maria H. Berrocal, MD (Santurce, PR)

SYNOPSIS

Preoperative Bevacizumab (Avastin) combined with viscodissection and high-speed cutter vitrector reduces operative time and complications in cases of traction and traction and rhegmatogenous retinal detachments. Several cases are presented using this technique.